

Congregation Beth Ami

presents a

Singing Shabbat

with Lisa Iskin

Friday February 23rd

Lisa Iskin has provided music for Synagogues in Napa, Solano, and Sonoma Counties since becoming a member of the clergy in 1989. She has been a part of births, deaths, hospital visits, rituals, Sunday school, and other important events in peoples' lives. She has co-officiated with Rabbis, Buddhist senseis, Catholic priests, ministers of all ilk and has officiated on her own at many life-cycle events. Lisa helps create little spark in people, to help them follow what they feel inside, what they wanted to discover; to bring them closer to their perception of God and life. Her little spark has become a bright, beckoning flame to many. Her prayer is that her music can change a life, and then another may change, and the whole world may change... from separation to oneness and peace. All who hear her remember. All who are touched by her words and her music are changed. All who come receive the gifts of her vision, her dream, her smile, and her music.
